

Leica at Photoville 2021

Shots from a photo-walk sponsored by Leica at Photoville; what's usually an annual photography festival in Brooklyn Bridge Park.

After a year in Zoom exile, Photoville came back.

The walk was hosted by photographer Ben Franke.

The athletes include Luciano Acuna, Lenny Cruz, Mike Araujo and Bryce Clarke.

I was shooting a Leica SL-2 with a 24-70mm lens

in the form of a guy who is exceptionally good at balancing a soccer ball on his head, even while climbing up a pole.

He incorporated himself into the shoot for a while.
